

Fort Ranslier Novber 9 1782

Garreson Orders

untell furder Orders a Subaltern is to Do the Duty of Officer of the Day the Gaurd is to Consist of a Serjent Corperel and twelve Prevets for the Main Gaurd a Corperel and foure Men for the ferry Gaurd & a Corperel and three men for the Cattal Gaurd a Subaltern one Serjent and twenty Prevets with Axes are to be imploid Every Day Except Sunday at Cuting wood for the use of the Garrison the wood is to be Cut Seven foot Long and Pild up Every Day thirty Sleigh Loads of Wood Cut and Pild is to be Counted a Days work for the Party the Quarter Master will Visit the Party Every Evening and See wether thay have Cut and Pild thare Complement of wood and Report to the Commandant Every Evening if at any time thay Should be Deficient - a Sejent & twelve men is to be Allowed the Quarterter Master for the Extra fatigue of the Garrison the Quarter Master will waite on the Commedant Every Evening to Receive Directions for the Business of these the suceeding Day No kind of Stores are to be Esued out of the Q' Master Generell Store without an Order from the Commdent on any pretence what So Ever —

Tremper signed a furlough at Fort Hunter for Corporal Isaac Deforris on August 3, 1782

Tremper signed a furlough at Fort Hunter for John Barker and Isaac Hall on August 16, 1782

Tremper signed a furlough at Fort Hunter for Abraham Van Alstine on August 20, 1782

Tremper signed a furlough at Fort Hunter for Elijah Holister on August 22, 1782

Lieutenant Colonel Marinus Willett signed a furlough at Fort Hunter for James Degole on September 10, 1782

Lieutenant Colonel Marinus Willett signed a furlough in Tryon County for James Degole on September 10, 1782

At Fort Hunter on September 14, 1782 a pair of shoes was issued by the Quarter Master at Fort Hunter to John Young, Thomis Frisbee, Philip Johnston, William Lusk, & Michael Lusk, Junior of Captain Jonathan Pearcee's Company and Wilm Land of Captain Samuel French's Company of Willett's Corps.

Fort Harkerman September 11th 1783

Regimental Orders

The Regiment will parade to Morrow

Morning at Eleven Oclock for inspection Officers Commanding will pay particular attention that no man be Absent

Lieut^t Lawrence Tremper is appointed as Q' Master in the absence of Lieut^{nt} Trotter till further orders — he is to take in Charge all the Q' M' Master Generals Stores at this post & deliver none to any person without a written order form the Commanding Officer of the post as he must expect to be accountable for what is deficient.

*By order of Cap' Commandant Pearsee
Pliny Moor Adj^t*

Fort Harkerman September 23^d 1783

Regimental Orders

*The troops will hold themselves in Readiness to march to Morrow Morning at Eight OClock for Fort Schuyler —
The General will be a Signal for Striking Tents by which time the Officers Commanding Officers of Companies will that there respective Companies are Victualled, and in perfect readiness to March, That there Tents are lyed up in proper order without their poles and that Each Non Commission Officer & Private, Carry their Packs Provisions Camp Kettles, & the Arms of their Companies — The Quarter Master will see that the Copanies are Supply'd with Four Axes Each, Including those at present in their possession — Serj^t Holister is to remain at this post with the Artillery man & Invalids to take Charge of all Public Store, Ordnance &^c. &^c —
By order of Cap^t Commandant Pearsee
Pliny Moor Adj^t*

Albany 9 July 1782/.

~~Colonel~~ Regimental Orders.

All Officers commanding Companies are to be car[crease] full in attending the distribution of the provisions of their respective compan[creased] and see that due bills are regularly obtain'd for retrained parts of Rations at least half Gill of Rum or Whiskey is to be retain'd out of Each Non Commission'd Officer and privates Ration, at the Expiration of every Month, th[creased] due bills for all retain'd parts of Rations are to be delivered to the pay maste[creased] who is to call on the Contractors for the pay of those due bills and keep accounts [creased] the moneys retained for such retained Rations giving Credit to each Company for the particular Sums received on account of the company—these monies as fa[creased] as respect the Levies are to be laid out in Shoes and other necessary articles to enable those troops to be at all times in a Situation to do their duty. And as far as they respect the Two years Men they will be employed in ornamenting and for other purposes proper for the uniformity and good order of those troops. Each Company is to have one or more Soldiers or their Wives employed as Taylors and Shoemakers to mend the Mens Cloaths & Shoes for which a reasonable allownace will be made them out of the moneys receive[creased] for retain'd parts of Rations. But no account is to be paid otherwise than by Order from the Officer Commanding the Company Countersigned by the Commandant of the Regiment.

M Willett

Head Quarters Albany 10th September 1782

Lieut^{nt} Colo^l Commandant Reid & Colo^l Willett will be pleased to furnish the Commanding General as soon as they conveniently can with their Claims in Writing ——— Lieut^{nt} Class R.Q.M. is to make out returns of provisions at this post, who will make out a weekly Return on Monday to be delivered at the ordinary Office ——— No provisions at any post within this department is to be issued to any person but such as are in actual Service and agreeable to the last arrangements, Excepting on the Special Order of the Commander in Chief, or of the Secretary at War. ——— The deputy Quarter Master is immediately to prepare Quarters in the barracks for Six Commissioned Officers & for One hundred Non Commissioned & Privates. ——— M^r Bell prison keeper is immediately to make return of all military prisoners now in custody, the Regiment or Corps they belong to by whom and how long confin'd with the Crimes or reason of confinement, the Orderly Office will be at the house of M^r Donte near the Markett, Orders will be issued at Twelve OClock precisely.

Head Quarters Albany 12th September 1782.

The troops as they arrive in this City will repair to the barracks and apply to the deputy Q^r Master for the particular rooms he has assigned them agreeable to the General Order of the 10th Instant.

After Orders September the 12th 1782/.

A Corporal and four privates to be sent to the Commissaries to morrow morning by Sun rise they will take provisions Sufficient to Subsist them to Fort Hunter — to which place are to guard a number of Cattle the Cattle will be under the direction of a drover to be furnished by the Contractors — This Guard will be relieved at Fort Hunter & Return immediately the relief to consist of a Corporal and Eight privates to be furnish'd by the Officer Commanding at that post this guard will escort the Cattle to Fort plain

Head Quarters Albany 13th September 1783.

The prisoners arrived ~~from~~ in this City from Canada will be quartered in some Convenient rooms in the Hospital which Doctor Young will be pleased to point out untill such times as they can be forwarded by water to New Windsor they will be allow'd provisions during the time they remain at this palce upon an order from Head quarters the D. Q^r M^r will furnish them with wood, Cap' Sherwood will Please to deliver a List of their Names at the orderly Office —

An abstract of goods in the Possession of the Quarter Master of Fort Plain on October 26, 1783:
1 tack plain, 1 hand saw, 1 cross butt saw, 117 narrow axes, 1 hammer, 1 file, 3 gimblets, 4 augers, 1 bar of iron, 2 caulking irons, 1 marquee, 9 horse tents, 34 common tents, 1 trowl, and 5 boxes of nails.